Young Women's leadership for Collaborative Sustainable Communities!

PROJECT RESULT 2: #WECOLEAD TOOLKIT!

The final version of our #wecolead toolkit is ready! The toolkit aims to empower young women, youth workers, civil society representatives and stakeholders to support women's leadership in the field of environmental sustainability.

The toolkit offers a step-by-step process in three parts including methodologies, theoretical modules and exercises for female (self-)empowerment. It is based on the results of the research conducted by our partners in Sweden, Italy, Greece, Hungary, and Luxembourg.

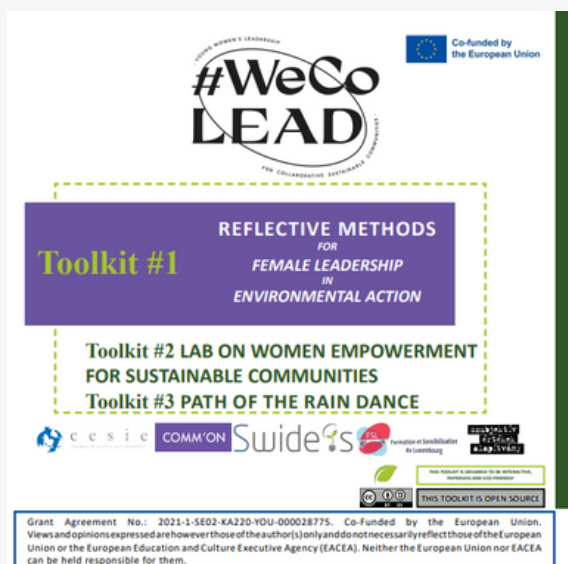

Keep your eyes open for the published toolkit!

WORKSHOPS WITH YOUNG WOMEN & YOUTH WORKERS!

Between November 2022 and February 2023, the partners tested the #wecolead toolkit through workshops and feedback meetings in Italy, Sweden, Hungary, Luxembourg, and Greece.

Young women, civil society representatives and youth workers explored the step-by-step methodologies proposed by the 3 parts of the toolkit, starting from the individual perspective, going to the organizational and the advocacy level.

#WeCoLead is a KA2 Strategic Partnership co-funded by the Erasmus + of the European Union. Led by Swideas in Sweden, the project also gathers partnerships from Italy (CESIE), Greece ('COMMON), Hungary (SVF – Subjective Values Foundation), and Luxembourg (FSL – Formation et Sensibilisation de Luxembourg). #WeCoLead is a KA2 Erasmus+ project with the goal of empowering young women to act as leaders in shaping the sustainable new normal and fighting against climate change, acting as change-makers, and exploring their active citizenship and socio-economic potential.

NEXT STEPS OF #WECOLEAD

The next steps of the project will include the following activities and results:

- #SoThatMoreCanCome: the development of an e-booklet for youth workers collecting all project results.
- Multiplier events in each country between June and September, to share the project results to the target group and involving the local community.
