Call for researchers: Pool of European Youth Researchers

The partnership between the European Commission and the Council of Europe in the field of youth (hereafter Youth Partnership) is seeking researchers to join the renewed Pool of European Youth Researchers (PEYR) to support its think tank function in the European youth sector, namely: gathering and producing knowledge and translating it for an effective use in youth policy and practice.

The members are selected for the first term of 2 years. It may be tacitly renewed for a further term of two years (until the end of 2027), unless either the Youth Partnership or the PEYR member notifies the other in writing of its intention to terminate the membership. Should selected members no longer be able to actively contribute to the work of PEYR and the Youth Partnership, they may be replaced. Members of PEYR participate in a personal capacity and based on their personal competence.

Prospective applicants fulfilling the criteria indicated in this call are invited to send their application, including the completed application form, CV and a writing sample to youthpartnership@partnership-eu.coe.int

Application deadline: 20 October 2023

Project Butterfly

The Butterfly Project intends to identify and select three composers, to write a three acts opera, in Italian, Polish and Finnish, dedicated to the theme of environmental sustainability. The opera is to be commissioned by Teatro Comunale di Modena (Italy), Opera Bałtycka, (Gdansk, Poland) and Opera Box (Helsinki, Finland). The opera will be written after 2 co-creation cycles of webinars with high school students.

The first cycle of webinars will help students to find a subject for the opera: environment Agencies and experts in every city of each theatre partner will provide knowledge to the students helping to find subjects suitable for writing a story.

The second cycle of webinars will guide the students into the creative writing of a story. The literary author (lyricist) from each theatre will help each group of students to turn its subject into a story suitable for an opera libretto. The opera lyricists will turn the story into a libretto.

Eligibility

This Call is addressed to music composers who, at the time of application, fulfill the following requirements:

- They are 18 years of age, or older;
- They are legal residents in any of the countries participating in the Creative Europe Programme;
- The selection will be mainly based upon the quality of the composition presented, as detailed below.

However, the Selection Committee may consider as a supplementary merit the specific experience or connection of the applicant within the musical scenes of Italy, Poland or Finland, including performances in its theaters. The personal experience of the candidate will be assessed in order to evaluate his/her ability to best participate in the project and in its related activities.
